About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and maintain peer-to-peer scientific relationships with Medical Experts (MEs), assess advocacy, and respond to unsolicited requests using compliant, non-promotional materials.
- Identify and map key stakeholders, build advocacy levels, and meet Field Medical Excellence metrics with proper system documentation.
- Provide accurate, evidence-based scientific information to Healthcare Professionals on treatment options, including Novartis products and therapeutic areas.
- Deliver up-to-date medical support to external stakeholders to ensure alignment with clinical guidelines and health economics data.
- Support clinical research by enabling trial awareness, site feasibility, accrual activities, and investigator-initiated research collaboration.
- Drive scientific exchange by engaging stakeholders, sharing insights on emerging science, and addressing critical patient care topics.
- Collect and synthesize field insights to inform medical strategy, clinical development, launch planning, and education programs.
- Execute scientific projects and provide cross-functional medical support, including training internal teams and collaborating with Medical, Commercial, and Market Access stakeholders.

Requirements:

- Proven experience in building peer-to-peer relationships with medical experts, key opinion leaders, and healthcare stakeholders
- Familiarity with clinical trial processes, including site feasibility, recruitment support, and adherence to regulatory guidelines.
- Strong analytical skills to collect, interpret, and report scientific insights that inform medical strategy and product lifecycle planning.
- Skilled in delivering evidence-based, non-promotional scientific information to healthcare professionals.
- Advanced degree in life sciences or healthcare (Pharmacy Doctorate) and Degree in Medicines (MBBS) preferred.
